"THE MAN SHE BROUGHT BACK"

By Jasper Ewing Brady ✓

John Ramsey seeks adventure in the Northwest by joining the R.N.W.M.P. But there is a cowardly streak in him which, however, does not show itself during his months of training. He wins the heart of Margo, daughter of the commander of the Division, and they plan to marry when he gets his chevrons.

A guard is killed by a member of a smuggling gang, which the police has long been trying to break up. John is given a chance to "get his man" and win his chevrons. But he fails, and is discharged in disgrace.

Margo's faith in him waivers for a time, but courage comes to him when he has faith strong enough to overcome fear. Then, alone and on his own responsibility, he goes out after his man-- and comes back with two-- one the murderer, the other the smuggler leader.
